The Blims

Intro.(0.21)

A chorus of alarms woke me up, feeling blue
Its getting personal man this songs aimed at you

So fuck off and leave me alone
So fuck off and leave me alone

So i went to the store needing veggeis and much more you didnt have a thing stood there with your stupid fucking grin

So fuck off and leave me alone
So fuck off and leave me alone

Yeah cause its a long way down, if you dont order enough potatos what am i supposed to cook?
And its a long way down and if you dont order enough courgettes are you getting this through your thick skull yeah yeahh

So fuck off and leave me alone
So fuck off and leave me alone

So i decided to cook my own potato mix but it overflowed blew my oven all to bits

So fuck off and leave me alone
So fuck off and leave me alone

Yeah cause its a long way down, if you dont order enough potatos what am i supposed to cook?
Well its a long way down and if you dont order enough courgettes are you getting this through your thick skull yeah yeahh

So fuck off and leave me alone
So fuck off and leave me alone

So fuck off, and leave me alone
