

I've Got A Funny Feeling

George Strait

Well my baby's wearin' a permanent smile
A satisfied look I ain't seen for a while
I ain't had no rings, fulfilled any dreams
But somethin's come over my baby it seems
I've got a funny feeling, somebody's stealin' my honey
Lord, I love that child, love to see her smile
But these circumstances ain't funny
Where lies a danger, is he a stranger or a pal
I've got a funny feeling, somebody's stealing my gal
If I came home early, Lord, what would I find?
Maybe I'd rather just walk around blind
I know baby loves me, Lord, I understand
I know how emotions can get out of hand
I've got a funny feeling, somebody's stealin' my honey
Lord, I love that child, love to see her smile
But these circumstances ain't funny
Where lies a danger, is he a stranger or a pal
I've got a funny feeling, somebody's stealing my gal
Wherever he is, well, I'm callin' his bluff
I'm gonna start wearin' that good smellin' stuff
And I'll be the lover that I used to be
Whatever she's missin', she'll get it from me
I've got a funny feeling, somebody's stealin' my honey
Lord, I love that child, love to see her smile
But these circumstances ain't funny
Where lies a danger, is he a stranger or a pal
I've got a funny feeling, somebody's stealing my gal
I've got a funny feeling, somebody's stealing my gal
