

Snare Hanger

Battles

Welcome to an empty fortress
A mighty wreck that once was proud
    Ate alive by oxidation
    Abandoned by a crew of cowards
    Navigation systems failed
Computers crashed and they all fall down
    Possibly I've seen too much
    Hangar 18, I know too much
    All the guilty paid the price
Suspended by their broken necks
    No one survived to tell the story
When foreign life forms resurrect
    And military intelligence
Is still two words that can't make sense
    Possibly I've seen too much
    Hangar 18, I know too much
