Haunted

Charlotte Martin

Watch yourself before you crawl inside somebody else
Were you here to trap me like a 1000 bottle of tears?
Even though you disappeared with no goodbye
I see you almost everywhere, you're everywhereI'm haunted, and all I see is you
I'm haunted, and all I need is you
There is no one else, there is no one else
Except for youI still dream, I won't give up until I wear your ring
(Come close, violate, violate me, love)
Violate, and if you do it, try not to be late
(Come close, violate, violate me, love)A hundred winters made the spring insane
A hundred nights without you
I'm not okay, I'm not okayI'm haunted and all I see is you
I'm haunted and all I need is you
I can't go too far to find out where you areI'm haunted and all I see is you
I'm haunted and everyone is you
There is no one else, there is no one elseThe memory burns so deep in my heart
Through the hollow hours
You're close to meI can feel
I can feel
I can feelI'm haunted, I'm haunted
I'm haunted and all I see is you
I'm haunted and everyone is you
There is no one else, there is no one elseThere is no one else, there is no one else
There is no one else, there is no one else
Except for you
