

Lost

Shaggy

Oh no, ya hear me
You tell the future
Yeah, come on
Or maybe your future blank
Parental advisory, watch this You thinking that you're grown now
You got your eyes set on the street
Some how you think that you can stand on your feet
No job, no house, no car
Tell me how can you acquire these things I know just what your thinking
The road you wanna take will leave you sinking
You wanna roll around with your crew
Tow drunks, gang bangs, steal cars
Doing all of these horrible things Now tell me how you were mislead so easily
When you was raised better by your family
You tryna be something that you ain't meant to be
Your mamma's on her knees, pray to God every nite
'Cause she knows that you're Lost in the still of the nite
Ain't no need to lose site
She'll be holding the light, oh yeah
Lost in the still of the nite
Ain't no need to lose site
She'll be holding the light See son, it's never too late
The effort to correct is never to great
A family should stick together
One blood, one luv, one heart
Open arms welcome you at the gate You thinking that I'm crazy
I see through all them, see your visions hazy
I'm fired up with the preminotions
Black suits, long faces, sad words
Slow singing at the side of your grave Now tell me how you were mislead so easily
When you was raised better by your family
You tryna be something that you ain't meant to be
Your mamma's on her knees, pray to God every nite
'Cause she knows that you're Lost in the still of the nite
Ain't no need to lose site
She'll be holding the light, oh yeah
Lost in the still of the nite
Ain't no need to lose site
She'll be holding the light Whenever I'm low

All I need to know
Is that you're there for me
You're down for me
My strength when I'm weakWhenever I'm low
All I need to know
Is that you're there for me
You're down for me
My strength when I'm weakLost in the still of the nite
Ain't no need to lose site
She'll be holding the light, oh yeah
Lost in the still of the nite
Ain't no need to lose site
She'll be holding the lightLost in the still of the nite
Ain't no need to lose site
She'll be holding the light, oh yeah
Lost in the still of the nite
Ain't no need to lose site
She'll be holding the light
