

Aggression

Sete Star Sept

Sickening, the things that I see
Can't stop my mind from slowly wandering
Dreamin' again, I think you're with me
But there is where the thinking ends
 Sleep time, no longer
 Looks like it's over
 Took your wrist and cut it open
And now it seems I'm throwing you over the edge
 We had a gift no one had
You never thought I'd be cutting you open again
 Sorry, the pain seems endless
 Lie still, I'll soon be done with you
 Till then, you're left to deal with torture
I'm sure, in time you've gotten used to it
 Constant controller
 Your life is over
I'm takin' pride in my work as you bleed
 Took your wrist and cut it open
And now it seems I'm throwing you over the edge
 We had a gift no one had
You never thought I'd be cutting you open again
 I'm left to deal with my conscience
 Forgive me now
 I have to finish the * I started
 Not what I wanted
 Took your wrist and cut it open
And now it seems I'm throwing you over the edge
 We had a gift no one had
You never thought I'd be cutting you open again
 Took your wrist and cut it open
And now it seems I'm throwing you over the edge
 We had a gift no one had
You never thought I'd be cutting you open again
