Have We Lost

Flyleaf

Please...
Don't tell me any more,
There's a weight in your eyes
And it weighs on my heart.
Where have the children gone?
We were innocent once,
But that was so long ago...
Have we lost our way back home?
We have made mistakes,
I know, I know...
Don't tell me of better days.
There's a memory I have,
Could be something I read.
Of laughter and cheap guitars.
In a house full of friends,
Could've been one of ours.

We stayed up late and loved the stars.
Can't remember the rest,
Just a few parts.
Have we lost our way back home?
We have made mistakes.
I know, I know.....
I think we lost something that we miss.
I wanna find that book,
Dust it off and read it again.
There was hope in the end...
Have we lost our way back home?
We have made mistakes.
I know,
We were braver still!
When we were young...
And when we were young,
We spoke in tongues.
