Lorenzo

Motor Ace

Someone else standing in my shoes
Count the hours since he left his boots behind
Still in limbo, think I'll stay up late
This infomercial's got me lifting weights for you
I'm sober
Is it over now?
Nights gone, I'm still waiting
Another drink could save my life
What's this myth, said we'd have good times
I can't seem to find, find my impulsive side
Just excuses and the like
Simple things aint gonna make me survive
This rock and roll thing still gives me life
And it's not gonna change
Is it all that strange?
I'm sober
Is it over now?
Nights gone, I'm still waiting
Another drink could save my life
Someone else standing in my shoes
Count the hours since he left his boots behind
Still in limbo, think I'll stay up late
Lorenzo Lamas got me lifting fucking weights for you, yeah
I'm sober
Is it over now?
Nights gone, I'm still waiting
Another drink could save my life
Tonight, yeah
