Wide Eye Panic

So you wanna be rich?
But youâ€¦. yeah, but you fail to see there is nothing left inside except for what's in front of me.
And that's a fascist animatronic pawn.
Pray a little more you see that there's nothing wrong except you free your mind with failed policy.
Cannot help the fact you underestimate your enemy.
Just take a look sir at what you have failed to learn.
You'll breathe it, feel it, see it, know you're a lie

Numb to what we've become.
Dare the meek drastic change.
Failed to see eye to eye.
Tear in two which was written down.

So you wanna be rich?
But youâ€¦. yeah, but you fail to see there is nothing left inside except for what's in front of me.
And that's a fascist animatronic pawn.
Pray a little more youâ€™ll see that there's nothing wrong.
Now if you justify your humanity is the reason for your sin just stay the fuck away from me.
And trust me winds of change will begin to blow.
Youâ€™ll breathe it, feel it, see it, know we're alive.

Numb to what we've become.
Dare the meek drastic change.
Failed to see eye to eye.
Tear in two which was written down.

All you are, and all youâ€™re fed was lost inside your tiny head.
What things we cling to.
What thoughts we die for.
What terms we surrender.
This life we live, it's in your head.
It's in your head, you make them real.
Trust and greed, love and hate, rich and poor, peace and war.

Don't seem so controversial.
Love one another.
Don't kill your brother.
Eat all your fruits and vegetables.
Don't seem so complicated to me.

Don't seem so complicated to me.
