

Theater (Featuring Jonny Corndawg)

Middle Brother

I went to the theater but nobody came
It was just silence after we prayed
Well, I learned my lesson, well, soul dear played on Just let it ring out until you are gone Well, this life won't tell you nothing
Nothing but lies
Well, this life won't tell you nothing
Nothing but lies Beyond waiting, with your sister and friends
I guess if I saw no one else, I am jealous of him
Well, I know a jury, said you committed no crime
The last time I saw you, oh, damn it, you were mine Well, this life won't tell you nothing
Nothing but lies
No, this life won't tell you nothing
Nothing but lies And all that is taken, and all that is gone
Well, I stay myself, no matter how long Well, this life won't tell you nothing
Nothing but lies
No, this life won't tell you nothing
Nothing but lies No, this life won't tell you nothing
Nothing but lies
Well, this life won't tell you nothing
Nothing but lies
