

Horses Are Honest

Audrey

Imagine them like horses
They run, they run and then it's all gone
Hold her hoof, isn't that enough proof before they hurt you, too?Run your way as I could
I hear your lies, and they're in front of my eyesCount your steps, moonlight shake me
It's not gonna happen
She's around where the horses run
I'll be there, waiting with the nightLike it was your horse
You took my heart and ripped it out of my chest
