Always Be True to You

Sanchez

Hey, girl, I will always be true to you
(Ooh)
It's not only a feeling, it's an endless concept
Oh, how I love this feeling for you
(Ooh)
It is the real thing, I can almost taste itWhen I rise early in the morning
And I look in the mirror
Reflections of your lovely face
With tears in my eyes
As I give thanks onto the Father
Who be holding such wonderful treasure all alongThere's never a day I don't think about you
My mind's a mess and my heart's in distress
Often I wonder about the things you do
Honey, please don't forsake me
'Cause my heart is so trueHolding you now, would be my greatest desire
And seeing you walk through the door
This love for you can never be measured
Just come on home to me, that's all that mattersI'll always be true to you
(Ooh)
Yes, I'll always be true to you
(Ooh)Closer, yes, we are to be
Baby, you know you belong to me
Come on home, come on home
Seems like my bed is to wide
Girl, I need you by my sideThis house is not a home
Without you to call my own
Tired of talking on the phone
When you hang up, baby, I'm still all aloneI'll always be true to you
(Ooh)
Yes, I'll always be true to you
(Ooh)
I'll always be true to you
(Ooh)It's not only a feeling, its an endless concept
Oh, how I love this feeling for you
It is the real thing, I can almost taste it
When I rise early in the morning
And I look in the mirror
Reflections of your lovely face
