

Disappear

Parachute

Take the phone
It's out there all alone
Left it on the table where it was
Keep the car
The keys are in the front
It's out there on the street right where I parked And I know I don't know much
But I know that a man feels many things
It's a fleeting urge to run
Like a bird flying by on a summer breeze
Like the sound of a train if you're listening
It just fades in
Then it disappears Mark the map
Pack a couple bags
Dream myself a ticket
Don't come back And I know I don't know much
But I know that a man feels many things
It's a fleeting urge to run
Like a bird flying by on a summer breeze
Like the sound of a train if you're listening
It just fades in
Then it disappears If I could disappear
You don't have to know why you're going
Just why it is you want to leave
If I disappear
You don't have to know where you're going
Just where it is you want to be
You don't have to know where you're going
Just where it is you want to be And I know I don't know much
But I know that a man feels many things
It's a fleeting urge to run
Like a bird flying by on a summer breeze
Like the sound of a train if you're listening
It just fades in
Then it disappears Walk away
Leave it all behind
Dream up the escape
But never try
