Take Me

John Butler Trio

Take it from me come take me home
I'll be the one for you one for you one for you
Trembling skin, right to the bone
Bite into me I am ripe for the takingTwist me, turn me, throw me around
Drunk in this potion of loaded emotion
Beautiful beautiful beautiful lies, lies, lies, all liesTake me, take me, take me
Won't you take me, take me, won't you, Lord
Take me, take me, take me
Won't you take me, take me, won't you, LordSomething so warm, so soon the cold
You said you loved me
Yes, you said you'd call me now
How can you go leave me hereHungry and hunting
Yes desperate and loathing
Beautiful beautiful beautiful lies, lies, lies, all lies
I can not stand this dumb look in your eye, ohTake me, take me, take me
Won't you take me, take me, won't you, Lord
Take me, take me, take me
Won't you take me, take me, won't you, LordCould of been should have been Back and forth round again
'Round and 'round circles
Been waiting for youOh my knees, you retreat
Now I'm praying for mercy, mercy, mercy
I'm pleading with you, ohTake me, take me, take me
Won't you take me, take me, won't you, Lord
Take me, take me, take me
Won't you take me, take me, won't you, Lord
