

Catapult (ft. Kat Vinter & Little Simz)

Lena

So still for the longest time
I couldn't see two steps ahead, I was blind
I, I, I, I could not decide
Well I should die, for true it lead to the life that I wanted
Don't know if you know but you messed up my space
Just what I needed to move from this place that I wanted
Gave me a reason to open the gate
Just when it felt like it could be too late
Launch me into, launch me into
Another atmosphere
Was it for you? Was it for you?
I could not be here
Want you to know, want you to know you're my catapult
Want you to know, want you to know
Want you to know, want you to know you're my catapult
Want you to know, want you to know
Just two strangers rendezvous
Made me forget everything I ever knew
You, you, you waited round the bend
A second before and we would never have met, coincidence
Don't know if you know but you messed up my space
Just what I needed to move from this place, coincidence
Gave me a reason to open the gate
Just when it felt like it could be too late
Launch me into, launch me into
Another atmosphere
Was it for you? Was it for you?
I could not be here
Want you to know, want you to know you're my catapult
Want you to know, want you to know
Want you to know, want you to know you're my catapult
Want you to know, want you to know
Oh, I'm takin' off into the sky
You can see me fly, you as you and I
Read between the lines, tell me why you try Livin' in a lie, figure that I might See you in another life
Please don't you try me this time
Can't stand me losing my mind
I'm gone, I've been searchin' just to find
Somethin' that'll keep me sane while I'm here
Somethin' I can maintain while I'm here
This has never been a game, I'm sincere Promise I will never change, I'm makin' it clear when off is
This is my truth, you heard it here first
We've probably been through the absolute worst
Boy, you, this drama, it might not be worth it
But we're more than worth it and that's why it hurts
Don't you listen to words comin' from anybody else but me

Is this even gonna work? Well we'll see What will be will be, but don't underestimate me, noLaunch me into, launch me into Another atmosphere
Was it for you? Was it for you?
I could not be hereWant you to know, want you to know you're my catapult
Want you to know, want you to know
Want you to know, want you to know you're my catapult
Want you to know, want you to know
