

Catch Fire

Periphery

Lock eyes like we're staring down the barrel of a shotgun
Appear so quickly
Leave as swiftly as you came
Sometimes I wish I had the measure of a wise man
But I set the mood, plant the tomb and bury all the bones within
It sure is something when we all catch fire
Bodies burning like the sunrise Stay with me
I'll show you paradise
It feels so right
Give me that peace of mind
I'll give you everything just
Know it feels so good that I could die
And be alright Alive
We breathe when everything is as it seems
But is there something much more?
Underneath the sheets, beneath the skin
There's a beauty waiting to be adored
We're cradled in the thick of it but too ignorant to give a shit
We set the mood, we plant the tomb and bury all the bones within Don't keep me hanging from the mouth
It sure is something when we all catch fire
Bodies burning like the sunrise Stay with me
I'll show you paradise
It feels so right
Give me that peace of mind
I'll give you everything just
Know it feels so good that I could die
And join the stars
Give me that peace of mind
I'll give you everything just
Stay with me
I'll show you paradise
It feels so right We exist in this moment only to fly
Just stay with me
Twisting love as we hold it on the inside
Just stay with me It sure is something when we all catch fire
Bodies burning like the sunrise Stay with me
I'll show you paradise
It feels so right

Give me that peace of mind
I'll give you everything just
Know it feels so good that I could die
And join the stars
Give me that peace of mind
I'll give you everything just
Stay with me
I'll show you paradise
It feels so right
