

Somewhere

Scissor Sisters

All the jagged lines,
All the dotted eyes,
Tiny like a white lie,
Takes someone to know,
Takes someone who cares,
That's the way I believe like a neon prayer
Straight line to heaven, Are ya there
Extraordinary lives,
Keep crashing and tumbling back
Somewhere there's a sky for only me
Diamonds in disguise
Hiding like forgotten days
All these tears of mine will fly away
I can see for miles
I can sleep for days
Everything you save me
Only someone to hold
You're only someone to share
To see the things that you miss
Remember when you're scared
Straight like a christian, Are ya there
Extraordinary lives,
Keep crashing and tumbling back
Somewhere there's a sky for only me
Diamonds in disguise
Hiding like forgotten days
All these tears of mine will fly away
Were only turning around, oh aa
Turning ourselves around, oh aa
Were only turning around, oh aa
Turning our love around, oh aa
Were only turning around, oh aa
Turning our self around, oh aa
Were only turning around, oh aa
Turning our love around, oh aa
Extraordinary li-ive-ives
Tumbling Back
Somewhere there's a sky for only me
Diamonds in disguise

Hiding like forgotten days
All these tears of mine will fly away
