I Don't Give A...

Dope

This is a song about five simple words
That when used together properly can help
To relieve the stress, frustrations and aggravation
Caused by all the people that make you wanna freak the  out
Why do you have to go and make things so hard?
It doesn't have to be like this
Who the  do you think you are?
That's it, I'm walking away
It's just one more reason for me to say
I don't give a , I don't give a
(What?)
I don't give a , I don't give a
(What?)
About you and your point of view
Or your stupid, selfish attitude
And it seems to be
That you never really gave a  about me
So I don't give a ***
I don't give a ***
So I don't give a ***
I don't give a ***
To my boss who's always hassling me
And the people that I work with harassing me
And to the ones talking  with their backs to me
And to my loving parents through my wonderful teenage years
To my ex-girlfriend who cheated on me
To my ex-teachers that never believed in me
To the people who always want something for free
And to the president of the United States of America
I don't give a , I don't give a
(What?)
I don't give a , I don't give a
(What?)
About you and your point of view
Or your stupid, selfish attitude
And it seems to be
That you never really gave a  about me

Now I see, I woke up from the fantasy

I hate you
(I hate you)
It's true
(I do)
And I don't give a  about you
I don't give a  about you
I don't give a , I don't give a
(What?)
I don't give a , I don't give a
(What?)
I don't give a , I don't give a
(What?)
I don't give a  about you
