

Like a Bow

Owle

We walk, sinking into the sand
Inside of me, I hear a voice here without sound
Tonight, I'm running out of words to re-write
I keep in me a sad song, see I can't go back Cause I know - arrow away
Where I'll go - arrow away We sigh, sinking into the sand
Sky begging me don't sleep alone underground
Tonight, we're running out of oxygen
Life deep inside of me knows when I can breathe again Cause I know, arrow away
Where I'll go, arrow away
