

Silhouettes

Viet Cong

Saturday evening, let's celebrate
On the same, you never give it to me
Overwhelm but I'm drunk until the lesson
Entertain, you go in excess Hey, is there any consequence
Then get lost, you're gonna get you the time
I control on above my prettiest arrays
Time to evade all the picture that make Psychopath, and they say
Cross it loud viciously
Our deep desire
Becoming one more way
There's no connection left in your head
I know you look at things to forget
I know the world in sense of regret
Relay, reply, react and reset
Are we over? Are we over?
Are we over? Are we over?
Relay, reply, react and respond
The simple task of turning it on
Only receiving electrical shock
Now everything can't stay into lock
May be too late, but it's much too soon
It isn't something that's safe to assume
And then anyone can disappear in the storm
There's no connection left in your head
I know you look at things to forget
I know the world in sense of regret
Relay, reply, react and reset
Are we over? Are we over?
Are we over? Are we over?
