More than a Dream

Harrison Craig

I'm not one to run away
Throw anything in front of me
I've lived a thousand lives in melodies
They've overtaken meI'm not one to hide my face
Oh, but you, my dear, my saving grace
Through the storms your harmonies
Were my heartbeatAnd I, I never thought
Never believed
Never could see
The walls were bigger than me
But I tore them down
I tore them down
In front of me
It's more than a dreamSaw myself just sail away
Into the blue beyond the grey
Seeking better days
Where you found meThe walls of misty haze
Blocked my sight, stopped my gaze
Pushing me away
From youAnd I, I never thought
Never believed
Never could see
The walls were bigger than me
But I tore them down
I tore them down
In front of me
It's more than a dreamAnd I held my head high
But you never saw me cry
Darling, tonight, it's all on the line
I've made up my mind, oh, it's about time
Yeah, we'll be alright tonightAnd I, I never thought
Never believed
Never could see
The walls were bigger than me
But I tore them down
I tore them down
In front of me
It's more than, more than a dream
