

Every Time I Think of You

Ash Koley

I can see us falling on falling on where you take me up as we spin and race to the open space it won't matter where we met every time i think of you i get caught up in your face your perfect little smile
every time i think of you i
see the fins in your hair and the ocean in your eyes every time i think of you i smile every time
whether the world brings us i'll keep you with me oh and from day to day we will may the same with the sun light in our eyes
get caught up in your face
every time i think of you i
every time i think of you i smile
every time i think of you i smile
get caught up in your face
every time i think of you i
and the ocean in your eyes
every time i think of you i smile
