Haunted

Television Personalities

I'm haunted by your eyes
And I'm haunted by your face
And I'm haunted by your smile
And I'm haunted by your taste
By the ghost outside your door
By the lovers gone before
By the shadows on the wall
And I'm haunted by your fears
I'm haunted by my tears
A love that used to show
A love that used to glow
By the ghost outside your door
By the lovers gone before
Everything comes back to haunt these rooms
I'm haunted by your tears
I'm haunted by my face
And I'm haunted by your eyes
I'm haunted by your smile
And I'm haunted by your tears
And I'm haunted by your fears
By the ghost outside your door
By the lovers gone before
Yes everything comes back to haunt these rooms
The places that we used to go
The people that we used to know
Everything comes back to haunt these rooms
I'm haunted by the past
And I'm haunted by my fate
