

If You Found This It's Probably Too Late

Arctic Monkeys

Oh, and the cost to correct a fraud, a fraud
I'm going to go out and kid them
Applaud, applaud
If you're the highest bidder, I'm yours You figure out pathetic sets
We're not sure of the etiquette
We think out pathetic sets
We're not sure of the etiquette And if you found this, it's probably too late
Clinically cynical, hereditary hate
If you found this, it's probably too late
Ever so clinical, I'm running out of mates If we concentrate on being off the cuff
Not sure we're ready but probably rough
Frightening honesty isn't enough
And it's nothing on the early stuff
