

Sin and Bones

Fozzy

What ever happened to you?
The weight of the world
Has crushed your shoulders
Why do you do what you do?
Greed lives in the eye of the beholder

If you want it
You must take it
If you believe it
You can't fake it
If you have it
You must use it
If you find it
You can't lose it again

The ice in your veins
Makes you strong
The hole in your soul tearing onward
You're breaking your back everyday
The sin and bones lead you astray

If you want it
You must take it
If you believe it
You can't fake it
If you have it
You must use it
If you find it
You can't lose it again

The glint in your eye is of cold steel
You're stabbing the knife in their back
The love in your heart is congealed
Jumping right off the track

If you want it
You must take it
If you believe it
You can't fake it
If you have it

You must use it
If you find it
You can't lose it again

You can't lose it again

You can't lose it again
