Neutral

THB

I was trying to sweep away all my desires,
I threw out emotions, my emotions Just to live in neutrality cause I know you only came to leave me, you leave meYou've already see turned back and left me/you in this way,
I/you don't want to believe you/me, to believe youSo you are/I am far away,
each step that you/I make takes me/you far away,
I don't want to trust youLove is a ruler... Bells never ring for us, that's what we feel,
living apart is the better way Can I feel something? Something...
Why our souls are so dry and our fucking hearts so slow?You've already see turned back
and left me/you in this way,
I/you don't want to believe you/me, to believe youSo you are/I am far away,
each step that you/I make takes me/you far away,
I don't want to trust youBells never ring for us,
that's what we feel,
living apart is the better wayCan I feel something? Something...
Something?And our hearts beat so slowly...
And our hearts beat so slowly.....
