The Devil Wears Prada

Keep this on your mind
Keep it within your eyelids
Keep this on your mind
Keep it within your eyelids We have ascended countless stairs
Perhaps it has interrupted our thoughts
Regret is an inception, regret is a beginning Miles and miles of wires build the apparatus
But don't mistake power lines for shelter
I forgot and it will more than likely happen again, happen again
More than likely happen again
More than likely happen again Drink and binge the waters of the sea Keep this on your mind
Keep it within your eyelids
Keep this on your mind
Keep it within your eyelids Don't climb for a lifetime only to fall short of infinity
Everything is left with faith, some minds are sand
But I prefer concrete This is what is going to separate us from them
This is what is going to separate us from them Time for the next chapter Keep this on your mind
Keep it within your eyelids
Keep this on your mind
Keep it within your eyelids Keep this on your mind
Keep this on your mind
Keep this on your mind
Keep this on your mind
