I Am the Pit

Cripper

Without the pain -- no suffering
Without the pain -- no strengthThere's no reason to give in
There's no doubting voice inside left sinceI live it
I mean it
I want itI've seen it
I know it
I can take it
I am the pitYou see what I mean(I -- am -- the -- pit
We- are -- the -- pit)Feel the fire and burn the pain
Learn to fall, stand up again
Take a look through devil's eyes
To find out what's left insideDrown the sorrow in your tears
Don't stop before it disappears
And when they don't believe you would Find peace where others daren't to lookStay a dreamer, stay alive
You don't need to sell your soul just to survive
I know you can though you don't dare
You've got a lot, so much to shareBe aware of what you've got To not miss too much of what you've not got
So hold on and keep your head
No matter what is done or said
