Arctic Swarm

Immortal

Through the storm of storms, the Aurora lights
In her swirling skies, a wraith like ice
Born to ride the cold winds of the north
Cometh to freeze the groundsRelease the Arctic swarm to drag us down
Spread its shivering wings, caught us by its cold
With haunting frosty eyes, it journeys fast
The cold will bring the fallThe Arctic swarm
Indestructible charmThe Arctic swarm, a fiend of frost and ice
Gathering winds that howl in frosty lines
Transatlantic travels a moss of cold
Revenge on mankindThe Arctic swarm
Indestructible charmDeep cold green seas, shivering masses
Winds tide heavy waves of continental darkness
Into the ice you see, it devours all
Unbreakable, its ice walls are aghastic majestic sightChaotic apocalypse, a floating storm
On colossal powers, all souls to the frozen world
Into the ice you see, it devours all
Unbreakable, its ice walls are eyes filled with iceThe Arctic swarm
Indestructible charm
