

Speechless

Sammie

The writings on the wall
I can see the end
There ain't no coming back
There ain't no use of pretending
Used to be the best of friends
This ain't no fairy tale
No hard feelings
So I'm wishing you well
It ain't better I had to take a loss
Shoulda learned to count the cost
Better yet how to play these cards
One big game winner takes all
Fighting is useless
So I no longer see the point in it
It's become pointless
Can't find nothing good to say
So why say nothing at all
I'm done with causing you pain
So I surrender this war of words
It's better left unsaid
Oh, I've got no words left to say to you
It's clear that you and me are through
There's nothing more to explain
I'ma go mine, you go your way
Speechless
We ain't no need to talk no more I'm cool
I'm cool
It's clear me and you are through
There's nothing more to explain
I'ma go mine, you go your way
Speechless
I'ma go mine, you go your way
I'm speechless
I never had problems long enough
But I never tried to hide em
Just because you found them out
Doesn't give you the right to try and solve em
I guarantee that I'ma still be me
And try to be everything that you need

It ain't better I had take a loss
Shoulda learned to count the cost
Better yet how to play these cards
One big game winner takes all
Fighting is useless
So I no longer see the point in it
It's become useless
Can't find nothing good to say
So why say nothing at all
I'm done with causing you pain
So I surrender this war of words
Ohhh, got no more words to say to you
