

Sylvie

ç^{TM1}/2é³Yè<±ç³/4Žă-•

Seventeen, high-school queen
Yeah you're pretty cute, I can see
Well you've come a long way since September
But, Sylvie, you oughtta remember You know he's mine
You know he's mine
You know he's mine Sylvie, girl, I'm a very patient person
But I'll have to shut you down
If you don't give up your flirting
Leave him alone, 'cause I know he loves me
Leave him alone, 'cause he tells me he loves me Over and over and over and over again
Over and over and over and over again Seventeen, high-school queen
Yeah you're pretty cute, I can see
Well you've come a long way since September
But, Sylvie, you oughtta remember You know he's mine
You know he's mine
You know he's mine Sylvie, girl, although you're my little sister
Well you're not without your charms
I'm not sure that he'll resist you
Give it all up, for we see you crying
Give it all up, 'cause I know you've been trying Over and over and over and over again
Over and over and over and over again Over and over and over and over again
Over and over and over and over again
