I Crave You

Shontelle

Travelin' down this rocky road, so hard to do it all alone
So I really need you to help me to move along
All my sunshine's gone away and all my blue skies turnin' gray
It's like the ocean's all dried up and empty, empty
So I really hope you understand all the reasons why I can't pretend
That I don't need your love and I can't ever break the chains
I crave you, I breathe you, I taste you, see you in my dreams
I'll never replace you, escape you, crazy as it seems
You said you'll never go anywhere
But every time I look around boy, you gonna disappear
Still I cry, still I try to save you, baby boy I crave you, crave you
Don't you know I love you? Don't you know I love you?
Though I see the sunrise the tears fallin' from my eyes
Longin' for you baby and it makes my world so crazy
Oh, now the pain is killin' me, baby can't you save me?
Won't you come, come to me, to me?
'Cause you got me trapped inside and now I can't escape
I'm scarred so deeply and now I can't erase the pain because
I crave you, I breathe you, I taste you, see you in my dreams
I'll never replace you, escape you, crazy as it seems
You said you'll never go any where
But every time I look around boy you gonna disappear
Still I cry, still I try to save you, baby boy I crave you, crave you
Don't you know I love you?
Boy you take me for your wife
Why you comin' at me?
I turn up in so much struggle and strive
Come and bring so much pain inna me life, me sing still
You say you woulda never hurt me, never lie
And you never wan splurt from in, inna me life
Still you only come and ah use me
And it breaks me hard as still you abuse me
Got me hangin' like a puppet from a string
You was the only ting I take control inna me life
So why you comin' at me ups 'n movin'
And turn me like, like I'm some kinda ara movie?
What kinda ting you bring to all me sufferin'
And still me wan sing, do anything to have you
Me sing, me sing, me really, really, really, really love you

I crave you, I breathe you, I taste you, see you in my dreams
I'll never replace you, escape you, crazy as it seems
You said you'll never go any where
But every time I look around boy, you gonna disappear
Still I cry, still I try to save you, baby boy I crave you
Don't you know I love you?
I'm begging you please don't leave me, no, no
I crave you, I breathe you, I taste you, see you in my dreams
I'll never replace you, escape you
