

All I Need Is One

Kenny Rogers

Just one bible just one bed
I just need one roof over my head
Just one old pickup to get me home
One steady pay check to keep the lights turned on
Just one guitar that stays in tune
One shot too many once in a blue moon
One dashboard picture of an angel smile
Just one more reason to go an extra mile
And the dream that keeps me going
Is the love of one good woman
There is a million blessings under the sun
But, as long as she loves me all I need is one
Just one moment that lasts all night
Just one long kiss in early morning light
One cup of coffee and I am good to go
When she says I love you baby that's all I got to know
And the dream that keeps me going
Is the love of one good woman
There is a million blessings under the sun
But as long as she loves me all I need is one... just one
And the dream that keeps me going
Is the love of one good woman
There is a million blessings under the sun
But as long as she loves me (she loves me)
But as long as she loves me all I need is one
All I need is one
