

Love You Goodbye (Fly By Midnight Cover)

One Direction

It's inevitable everything that's good comes to an end
It's impossible to know if after this we could still be friends, yeah
I know you're saying you don't want to hurt me
And maybe you should show a little mercy
The way you look I know you didn't come to apologizeHey, hey, hey
Oh, why did you have to walk out of my life
Hey, hey, hey
Oh, even though it's over you should stay tonight
Hey, hey, hey
If tomorrow you won't be mine
Won't you give it to me one last timeOh, baby let me love you goodbyeUnforgettable together the whole world in my hands
Unexplainable the love that only we could understand, yeah
I know there's nothing I can do to change it
But is this something that could be negotiated
My heart's already breaking baby don't want this tonightHey, hey, hey
Oh, why did you have to walk out of my life
Hey, hey, hey
Oh, even though it's over you should stay tonight
Hey, hey, hey
If tomorrow you won't be mine
Won't you give it to me one last timeOh, baby let me love you goodbye
Oh, baby let me love you goodbyeOne more taste of your lips just to bring me back
To the places we've been and the nights we've had Because if this is it then at least we could end it rightOh, why did you have to walk out of my life
Hey, hey, hey
Oh, even though it's over you should stay tonight
Hey, hey, hey
If tomorrow you won't be mine
Won't you give it to me one last time
Oh baby let me love you goodbyeOh baby let me love you goodbye
Oh baby let me love you goodbye
