

Abandoned and Alone

Bad Company

A fugitive soul out on parole
Standing alone, no, where can I go?
In a world so cold with no hand to hold
Searching through my heart, yeah, but nobody knows
And if I wondered why, maybe I would break
If I wondered how much more I can take
If I changed my mind, who could I tell?
If I made the time, I know that well
I'm abandoned and alone, no fix in sight
Side against a side, no place to hide
I'm abandoned and alone, no easy road
Leaves a man a tormented soul
You know it does, baby
Just follow the dream, I'll do what I can
I've got to be strong, you know, you know I got, I got a plan
If I wondered why, maybe I would break
If I wondered how much more I can take
If I changed my mind, who could I tell?
If I changed the time, I know that well
I'm abandoned and alone, no easy road
Side against a side, no place to hide
I'm abandoned and alone, no easy road
Leaves a man a tormented soul
If I wondered why, maybe I would break
If I wondered how much more I can take
If I changed my mind, who could I tell?
If I made the time, I know that well
I'm abandoned and alone, no easy road
Side against a side, no place to hide
I'm abandoned and alone, no easy road
Leaves a man a tormented soul
I'm abandoned and alone, no easy road
Side against a side, no place to hide
I'm abandoned and alone, no easy road
Leaves a man a tormented soul
