Washer

Slint

Goodnight my love Remember me as you fall to sleep Fill your pockets with the dust and the memories That rises from the shoes on my feetI won't be back here Though we may meet againI know it's dark outside Don't be afraid Everytime I ever cried from fear Was just a mistake that I made Wash yourself in your tears And build your church On the strength of your faithPlease Listen to me Don't let go Don't let this desperate moonlight leave me With your empty pillow Promise me the sun will rise againI too am tired now Embracing thoughts of tonight's dreamless sleep My head is empty My toes are warm I am safe from harm
