

Party in the Woods (feat. Afroman)

Chad Mac

Heres a little story that must be told about a good ol'boy that got put on hold they tried to hold me back from fortune and fame but real country boys stay true to the game.

Yeah, Chad Mac in the place and this is for the jacked up trucks with the bass and them all grip tyres they tried to stomp me out but im hotter than a bomb fire everytime i drink my 90 proof my deer blind judging Crew with Dj Booth this is how we party in the woods so call up your folks and tell em its all good.

Chorus x1

Turn up the radio we got the beat that rocks down the world is shining so pass it around tell ya friends and ya family that its all good cause this is how we do it when we party in the woods

(Afroman)

Afroman growing weed like a hippy party in the woods when im in mississipii told Chad Mac my cadillac my get stuck, pick me up in the truck he came from the back wood to my back hood (i got my petal to the metal and the 4Wheels riding its all good)listen to the mutters while they splashing out the gutters.

(Chorus)

Turn up the radio we got the beats that rocks down the world is shining so pass it around tell your friends and ya family that its all good cauae this is how we do it when we party in the woods

(Chad Mac)

This is how we do it in the sticks just some good ol boys on that down south shit if your country than you feel it we party in the woods cause we all bout that will free mudzillas on my shit cause they bite well hop in cutting trails like a white tail this how we partying so call up your folks and tell em its all good.

(Chorus)

Turn up the radio we got the beats that rocks down the world is shining so pass it around tell ya friends and ya family thats its all good cause this is how we do it when we party in the woods.

(Afroman)

I was born in LA raised (Palmdale) from the westcoast where raps came with me, dont sell "Well" i went down south with a colt 45 and a blunt in my mouth after sippin bacardi started spittin up the stupid all brickless part my grass roots stands from the woods of old grow help me take the shit off the stove.

(chorus)

Turn up the radio we got the beat that rocks down the world is shining so pass it around tell ya friends and ya family that is all good cause this is how we do it when we party in the woods
