Look Over Your Shoulder

Mishon

[Verse 1]I?ll be something like your guardian angel
I promise you I?ll never change girl
I?ll be there through the good and the bad
When you?re sad I?ve got your back
So many nights you spent crying
When he calls you up lying
Saying he?ll be home so don?t wait up too late
Don?t you ever get tired of these things? (He?s the reason for your pain)
It?s not my position girl to meddle in your life
You have no one to blame (The way he treats you is a shame)
Baby all you got to do is turn your head and...
[Chorus]Look over your shoulder girl
I?ll be there
When he lets you down again
Just look back, I?ll be right there
So when he doesn?t come home
And when he leaves you alone
You don?t have to worry
Just look over your shoulder
[Verse 2]Now every time that he treats you unfair
Baby call you know I?ll be there
Don?t worry how late I don?t care
Girl I ain?t going nowhere
My love is unconditional
What we got just ain?t typical
So please just let me know when you?re tired of being
Don?t you ever get tired of these things? (He?s the reason for your pain)
It?s not my position girl to meddle in your life
You have no one to blame (The way he treats you is a shame)
Baby all you got to do is turn your head and...
[Chorus]Look over your shoulder girl
I?ll be there
When he lets you down again

Just look back, I?ll be right there
So when he doesn?t come home
And when he leaves you alone
You don?t have to worry
Just look over your shoulder

Baby look over your shoulder
I?ll be right there
All hours of the day
All hours of the day
Look baby
[Verse 3]When the owls are looking in
I will be there
Yes I?ll be there till the end
I?ll be right there, I?ll be right there
So when he doesn?t (for you)
And when he doesn?t do (what he?s supposed to do)
Girl you don?t have to worry...
[Chorus]Look over your shoulder girl
I?ll be there
When he lets you down again
Just look back, I?ll be right there
So when he doesn?t come home
And when he leaves you alone
You don?t have to worry
Just look over your shoulder
I?ll be there
When he lets you down again
Just look back, I?ll be right there
So when he doesn?t come home
And when he leaves you alone
You don?t have to worry
Just look over your shoulder
Just look over your shoulder girl...
Shoulder girl...
Just look over your shoulder girl
