

For the Sun

Monster Truck

I feel the sun,
it makes me feel alive,
it keeps me warm,
like an honest man lying. In these lonely days, she's all that I have,
a constant reminder, of life moving past. Time rolls by me like the wind. and I'll keep flying 'til the end. I feel the sun, she gives me what I need,
she don't take a thing,
not one thing from me.
She said she'd never leave me, she promised she would stay.
now the darkest night,
has taken her away.
