

Minnie And Santa

Cyndi Lauper

I worked with a woman named Minnie
One Christmas eve long ago
When I asked, "What you doing this evening?"

Minnie took on a seasonal glow
She said she'd be waiting for Santa
She'd be wearing a bright red bow

Wo, Minnie and Santa
Minnie and Santa

What they're up to only Heaven knows
She wrote on a card, 'Don't take it so hard

We're headed for the North Pole'

Now Minnie could not be persuaded

That Santa just did not exist

She swore if she put up some mistletoe

Santa'd come give her a kiss

There where she hung up her stockings

All in their silky, soft, sheen

She'd be laying in wait on a bear skin rug

Where the cookies and milk could be seen

Oh, Minnie and Santa

Minnie and Santa

What they're up to only Heaven knows

She wrote on a card, 'Don't take it so hard

We're headed for the North Pole'

Now Minnie was older and wiser

Like a dear Auntie to me

But the night that she ran off with Santa Claus

Was a real epiphany

Oh, Minnie and Santa

Minnie and Santa

What they're up to only Heaven knows

She wrote on a card, 'Don't take it so hard

We're headed for the North Pole'

Next Christmas I passed by the bakery

Staring out from on top of the cake

Was a jolly old Santa with a big silly grin

And a gal in silk stockings and lace

Oh, Minnie and Santa

Minnie and Santa
What they're up to only Heaven knows
She wrote on a card, 'Don't take it so hard
We're headed for the North Pole'
Oh, Minnie and Santa
Minnie and Santa
What they're up to only Heaven knows
She wrote on a card, 'Don't take it so hard
We're headed for the North Pole'
Merry Christmas Minnie
Merry Christmas, ho ho ho
