

The Wicked Ones

10 Years

She, She is the love that you make and break
And He, He is the drug that you hate to crave
And I, I am the liar you made to praise
And You, You are the one that we want and need

Who will convince us?

The Wicked Will

Who will condemn us?

The Wicked will

Who will defend us?

Always

We are the Wicked ones who adore you

The Wicked ones will destroy you

We are the lost of your innocence

The Wicked ones running for you

We, We are the scar on the skin again

Massive lines of wondering eyes

Waiting, waiting to be bastard eyes

Monopolized selling clones of every kind

Who will convince us?

The Wicked Will

Who will condemn us?

The Wicked will

Who will defend us?

Always

We are the Wicked ones who adore you

The Wicked ones will destroy you

We are the lost of your innocence

The Wicked ones (running for you?)

Kill yourself to save yourself from yourself [x3]

Before you become one of us [x2]

We are the Wicked ones who adore you

The Wicked ones will destroy you

We are the lost of your innocence

The Wicked ones (The wicked ones)

You will become one of us
