Nightmare on the Way

Nightmare On The Way

Walk ahead just so terrified
Better look away now cause they all fell down
Itâ€™s just the fear that intensifies
Like falling ashes from a blood stained sky

Run and hide like a school boy
Who saw a priest kneeling on all fours
Thereâ€™s a hand grabbing at your feet
Boy you better strap yourself in cause youâ€™re in for a treat

Think itâ€™s safe to say thereâ€™s a nightmare on the way
No one is gonna help you today
Save your prayers for another day
Think itâ€™s safe to say thereâ€™s a nightmare on the way
Thereâ€™s nothing you can say or do
You opened the door and now youâ€™re gonna fall through
Hell is gonna have its way with you

Lurking low in the shadow
Better run away now cause thereâ€™s nowhere to hide
Just like a hardcore metaphor
Thereâ€™s something coming through your back door

Think itâ€™s safe to say thereâ€™s a nightmare on the way
No one is gonna help you today
Save your prayers for another day
Think itâ€™s safe to say thereâ€™s a nightmare on the way
Thereâ€™s nothing you can say or do
Hell is gonna have its way with you
