Last December (Alive in Athens)

Iced Earth

The howling winds blow
On this moonlit night
Eyes locked in fear
With a dark embraceThe bitter cold winds
Freeze the tears that fall
Hands held in grace
As we take the final stepObsessed with our love
Here is our fate
To need the final call
On this special winter dayA message to our elders
They surely won't forget
Our love must last forever
In death we shall not partIt seems like only yesterday
Our lives together planned
They say it's just a passing phase
We're damned by our youthWhy does no one understand
What we have is real
This is not your average love it's foreverLast December
Mother you have forced us here
Last DecemberFather now we'll disappear
Last December
One last step we fade awaySo we take the final step
Heed the final call
Together we are strong
Divided we must fallTeenage suicide
Our only way out
Together we might live
Divided we must fallLast December
Mother you have forced us here
Last DecemberFather now we'll disappear
Last December
One last step we fade away
