Piece Of Your Heart

Natasha Bedingfield

I know you're trying to make me happy
And I know you're doing it you're way, way
And I don't always make it easy
To know the perfect words to say, say
If you wanna give me what I want, listen
'Cause I'm gonna tell you what I need so bad
If you wanna give me what I crave, hold me
So I can feel your love
When the craziness begins to get to me
Just need a hand to hold, just be that somebody
It's your tenderness that's gonna make it right
I wanna piece of your heart, not a piece of your mind
When the craziness begins to get to me
Just need a hand to hold, just be that somebody
It's your tenderness that's gonna make it right
Give me a piece of your heart, not a piece of your mind
You're always trying to solve the puzzle
And you always wanna fix what's broke, broke
You keep searching through the rubble
And never wanna let it go, go
Sometimes it feels like I'm raining on the inside
And all the things that I'm trying, I don't get it right
And sometime, yeah I fall but I get up
It takes a while but I get there in my own time
If you wanna give me what I want, listen
'Cause I'm gonna tell you what I need so bad
If you wanna give me what I crave, hold me
So I can feel your love
When the craziness begins to get to me
Just need a hand to hold, just be that somebody
It's your tenderness that's gonna make it right
I wanna piece of your heart, not a piece of your mind
When the craziness begins to get to me
Just need a hand to hold, just be that somebody
It's your tenderness that's gonna make it right
Give me a piece of your heart, not a piece of your mind
Love is a very wide open door
You can go through every time you want more
Why do I feel like the glass is half full

When I've got enough of it to fill a swimming pool?
Listen
'Cause I'm gonna tell you what I need so bad
If you wanna give me what I crave, hold me
So I can feel your love
When the craziness begins to get to me
Just need a hand to hold, just be that somebody
It's your tenderness that's gonna make it right
I wanna piece of your heart, not a piece of your mind
When the craziness begins to get to me
Just need a hand to hold, just be that somebody
It's your tenderness that's gonna make it right
Give me a piece of your heart, not a piece of your mind
