

Lonely Wind (Piano Solo) [live]

Kansas

When I'm needin' a friend I can talk to the wind
God I sure am glad that I found him
Sometimes he seems to be the only one beside me
Who can feel the Lord's breath all around him
Winter's cold frozen ice or a bright autumn day

On a warm summer night you can hear him sayCry for me, sigh for me, sad breezes flow
Stay for me, play for me, the song my friends will know
My lonely wind must blowMighty friend that is mine, can you give me a sign?
He'll leave nothing but only to hear him
I've seen the tall trees bend low when his mighty winds blow
And that's all the more reason I fear him
Hear him call for the earth lonely I can feel his great pain
But on the eve of this day

I'll join in his refrainCry for me, sigh for me, sad breezes flow
Stay for me, play for me, the song my friends will know
My lonely wind must blowWhen I'm needing a friend I'll remember the wind
And my life here with the breezes of sorrow
I'll be leaving himoon 'cause I've got to make room
For the lonely that will find him tomorrow
On a black stormy night in your bosom I'll cling

And I'll know I've found love and the last song we'll singCry for me, sigh for me, sad breezes flow
Stay for me, play for me, the song my friends will know
My lonely wind must blow
