Decisions Made

Champion

Telling me that you're in control
I've heard it all and it's getting old
Chasing down regret from the night before
But every night you're back for more
Life can pass you by, so let's get it right
Decisions made? Just think again
Don't fill your life with regretsI know that you see the truth
There's not a moment to lose
I know how hard it can be
You've got to try and break freeThey're the best days of our lives
Why waste them standing in line?
But there's always a path you can take
Break free and take pride in decisions you've made
