

Time

Marion

Is there time to make up and cry? Is there time to make up and cry? Are you missing her? Are you missing her?
Are you missing her? Are you? Is there time to make you feel nice? Is there time to make you feel nice? Are you missing him? Are you missing him? Are you missing him? Cos you and I were on the inside And then I got pushed to the outside I used to glow red but now it's blue And now I can't pretend I'm not missing you But there's something about you I'm hearing When I look at you now I am leering But you don't care so neither do I care Is there time for a piece of the night? Is there time for a piece of the night? Are you missing her? Are you missing her? Are you missing her? Are you? Is there time to push back our lives? Is there time to push back our lives? Are you missing mine? Are you missing mine? Are you missing mine? Cos you and I were on the inside But then I got pushed to the outside I used to glow red but now it's blue And now I can't pretend I'm not missing you But there's something about you I'm hearing When I look at you now I am leering But you don't care, so neither do I I care You say I ruined your life? You say I ruined your life? Well what about mine? You don't know You and I were on the inside And then I got pushed to the outside I used to glow red but now it's blue And now I can't pretend I'm not missing you But there's something about you I'm hearing When I look at in your eyes I am leering But you don't care and neither do I care As long as I'm out of this picture Is there time to change your mind? Is there time to change your mind? Are you missing her? Are you missing her? Are you missing her? Are you?
