Body as a Cover

Krabathor

I've covered soul and mind
I've covered heart and blood
I've hidden the evil one
To see the lie laughBody as a cover
You've run-you didn't run
Body as a cover
You've hidden the truthI stroked velvet palm
To feel the slime of snake
I felt the wind all around
To hear false songI've seen hate to smile
I've been blind
I've felt break of my heart
I've been...cryingI opened out blind eyes
To wash the truth and feeling
Now there's time for our calm
You can't believe to coverBody as a cover
You've run-you didn't run
Body as a cover
You've hidden the truth
Body as a cover
You can't believe that
Body as a cover
You have to forget that
