

Kalifornia.

Kashmir

Kalifornia, have you gone wild?
I'm sifting through your dark miles reaching out for you in the headlight's glare but you're way to devious to be awareRestles, restles windswept road
 take me someplace
unfoldKalifornia, in a bleak road song old nick warned me
 against the storm
but I'm your slipstream
 you're my trail
 drive wild with me
full sailsRestles, restles
 windswept road
 take me someplace
 unfoldsometime
 get there sometime
