

The Cost

The Frames

Love has been the cause
Of all this suffering
And what has been our loss
Has been it's gaining
So lay your burdens down
And stop your crying We'll let it burn
Burn us down, burn us And low have been the odds
Of our reuniting
And where now can we turn
When we've got nothing We'll let it burn
Burn us down, burn us We'll let it burn
Burn us down, burn us And maybe it'll turn
Us around
